CINCINNATI, September 15.—The cotton factors of this city have long elt the need of an organization by which they could, through concerted action, bring the advantages which this city presents as a cotton market, more prominently before the trade of the country, from the planter to the manufacturer, and on Wednesday last held a meeting, at which a con-stitution was adopted. At an adourned meeting to-day the organization was perfected by the election of Matthew Addy, President; J. L. Tay-lor and M. Hirshberg, Vice Presidents. This Cotton Association will soon be ready for business.
